The Jackson players are to be complimented on their acting in the play "The Wolf At The Door," which was presented at Rugby hall Wednesday evening. Every word could be heard, which means much to the success of any play. All involved were so good that it would hardly be fair to mention any particular actor, but Mr. Jack Jefferies as the English colonel was exceedingly funny. Over $80 was realized from the play.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. K. Barnard surprised them in their new home on Friday evening. Games were played, lunch served and a purse of money presented to Mrs. Barnard to buy something for her new home.

Speech Recital

The speech department of the Mountain View Bible College is busily preparing for the recital to be held April 9. The main feature of the program is a four-act play entitled "The Witness." This has been written especially for the "Essentials of Public Speaking" class and is for the recital. "The Witness" is a drama dealing with the life and times of the early persecuted church. It portrays the result of the Edict of Persecution under the Emperor Trajan, in the lives of ordinary men and women.

Another interesting feature will be the delivery of two prize winning essays for the English composition class. Besides these presentations the speech students are preparing oral readings and items of speech work.

You will want to attend the College speech recital, so we mention the date and place again: Thursday evening, April 9, in the United Missionary Church.

DIDSBURY CHORAL SOCIETY TO PRESENT THE CRUCIFIXION
The Didsbury Choral Society, under the direction of Mr. G. Lyle Richardson will present Stainer's Crucifixion at the Mountain View Bible College Tabernacle at 8 p.m. on Friday, April 3.

A collection will be taken, all proceeds to go towards the European Food Relief Fund.

The same presentation will be offered at the Berghal Church on Monday, April 6 at 8 p.m.

A United States Air Force maintenance man uses a ladder to reach the upper portion of the towering tail section of a C-124 Globemaster of an air base in Japan. The giant triple-deck aircraft are being checked over before being put into service with a troop carrier wing in Korea.

When an explosion happens, a fire, a flood, a train wreck, or air accident, relief is of immediate necessity. So many people would perish if we did not have on hand and available a lot of blood, a lot of clothing, a lot of money, a lot of goodwill for the needs of others. Time is short. When disaster strikes there is no time to raise funds and hold showers, and plan what we would like to do. We just do it right off the bat through our Red Cross Disaster Relief Services.

The afternoon after the news broke of the devastating European floods, at 3:30 p.m. airplanes were on their way across the Atlantic, right to the heart of the flooded areas, carrying huge supplies from one of the Canadian Red Cross to relieve the desperate people.

The first consignment arrived in Holland at 10 a.m. the next morning. The Alberta Red Cross women alone sent a case of relief supplies to Holland. The Junior Red Cross has sent one case. In raw materials alone the Alberta contribution is estimated at more than $4,860.

We know that in our own Didsbury hospital, life-saving blood transfusions are made daily. We donate our blood, all those who can, but the Red Cross outlays each year some $200,000 in this province alone for the treatment of blood.

Required in the typing, grouping and processing of the blood, the Blood Donor Clinics, the laboratories and staff, and many other items. But we couldn't do without this life-saving service and we can't afford to be late.

The Alberta for Didsbury and District Branch in this campaign for funds is $2,750. We have already exceeded the quota. It is certain we shall do so again next year, but as yet contributions are slow in coming in, and we have not reached the half-way mark. The president and executive of the local branch appeal for the generosity of the people and canvassers who have not already done so, are asked to complete their residence on the returns as soon as possible to the treasurer, Mr. H. Morgan.

Remember, we can't be late in this work of mercy.

MELVIN NOTES

Notes From D.A.

HUGH McPHAIL

I have had some enquiries about the availability of Chinook Wheat. This is a new variety developed to replace Rescue as a Saw Fly resistant but not a good quality wheat. Chinook is Saw Fly resistant, and a good quality wheat that has been good enough looking to win prizes. Its main place will, no doubt, be where Saw Flies are a problem.

A promising variety of barley, "Gateway" has been developed at the University, but it will not be available for distribution this year.

Under the Cattle Improvement Policy operated by the Alberta Department of Agriculture, farmers can save 10 per cent on the purchase of a bull costing up to $500. A farmer can, subject to approval, select a bull from a local breeder, or on receipt of an approved application a bull will be selected and shipped to his nearest railway station. Over 530 bulls were placed under this policy in 1952.

One year, over 70 bulls were so placed in this district. Later, interest in the policy has revived as new regulation make it possible for a farmer to take advantage of the policy twice, where he is following a constructive breeding policy.

HOW T.B. USED TO STRIKE

Fifty years ago tuberculosis was a serious killer, points out B. K. Sandwell.

It was particularly dreaded because it struck at young people.

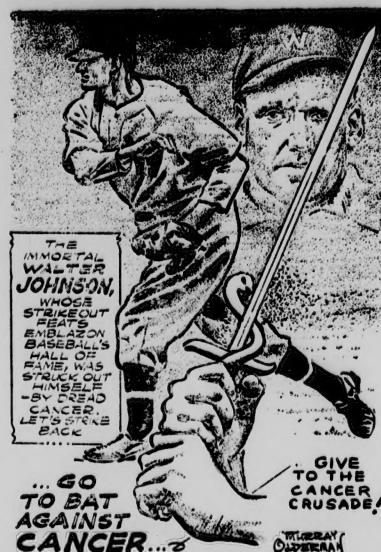

"I have never been able to excite myself greatly over the successes of science in prolonging until 80 the lives of people who have already attained the age of 70," says Sandwell. "A few philosophers and scientists may still be useful during those added 10 years but for most of us there is little justification unless we are capable of being good baby-sitters."

But the death in the third decade," adds Sandwell, "is a shocking social waste as well as a deep personal tragedy."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Unreality" to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday shows that we do not have to accept the false realism of sin, disease and death, and they can be overcome by God's law of perfection. Included are these stirring passages from the Bible: "Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely given." (Matt. 10:8) and from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Because man-made systems insist that man becomes sick and useless, suffers and dies all in consonance with the laws of God, are we to believe it? Are we to believe an authority which Jesus proved to be false." (188:15-20).

During 1952 the C.P.R. spent $82,000,000 for new equipment.

THE GREEKS

HAVE A WORD FOR IT

... WE MEAN the magic word that tells a mule to get going. It probably worked better than usual, recently, when Greek mule-drivers had to transport into the isolated interior, roofing materials needed for the construction of refugee shelters. The government purchased 2,000 tons of aluminum for the purpose — and incidentally licked the transportation problem.

Another nice thing about alu-minum's lightness is that a given poundage goes two to three times as far as with other metals. It often means that aluminum, with all its advantages, actually costs less, too. Aluminum Company of Canada, Ltd. (Alcan).

Through The Study Window

Rev. C. C. Armstrong

Within the past two weeks two people have died and in their passing have stirred the feeling of millions. I am referring, of course, to Joseph Stalin and Queen Mary, who both symbolized the essential nature of their own sense of destiny.

The one helped to tear the monarchy in his own country, and furthered a social revolution that has shaken the world. His power, as head of a political force, was revolutionary, tyrannical and unchanging, steadily forcing all opposition to submit.

The other helped establish the monarchy in the hearts of her people throughout the length and breadth of the Commonwealth.
Her power, politically speaking, was negligible. Yet her long life, her quietly dignified, her steadfast conservatism, have been as a spiritual rock against which the waves of stormy seas have beat in vain.

One contemplates the eternal destiny of two people so vastly different. Having been so unlike should it surprise us that they have different destinies hereafter?
What would they find to say to each other should they meet in the long corridor of Eternity? The drama of life seems but a prologue for the deeper mysteries beyond.

Yet, at this Easter Season, the most significant event is not the passing of Joseph, Stalin or Mary Windsor, nor the death which strips us of all earthly titles and perogatives. It is to be found in the death and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth, the Christ. It is in that perspective that we must contemplate the meaning and the destiny of humanity of tyrant and Tear, of Queen and Commoner, of Johnny Canuck. The route we take through life is quite as important as the destination that is ours in death. "This is life eternal, that we might know thee, the only true God and Jesus Christ, whom Thou hast sent."

What God intends to do with us is His concern, but what we intend to do with God is our concern. If we find Him in the "Herein" we need not fear the "Hereafter." It is the function of the Righteous Judge to acquit or condemn, but it is our privilege to seek an Advocate Jesus Christ, the righteous. "And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments." The darkness is past, and the true light now shines.

similar to concrete, but one-fifth its weight. It is said to have 10 times the insulating capacity and

MASSEY-HARRIS BUILDS WORLD'S FIRST TEST TRACK FOR POWER FARMING MACHINES

Another milestone in implement engineering progress

In 1952, Massey-Harris took one of the longest forward steps ever taken by a farm machinery manufacturer, toward the development of stronger, longerlived, better-performing, trouble-free machines for power farming. Massey-Harris built the world's first full scale farm machinery "Test Track", where M-H tractors, combines and other farm machines are being tested, accurately and scientifically, for vibration, fatigue, resistance to shock, resistance to water and dust, stability on slopes, climbing power, traction in mud, steering, torque, weight distribution.

Combined with practical field tests, these scientific track tests conducted under controlled, comparable conditions are providing Massey-Harris engineers with the necessary knowledge to improve design, increase durability, and improve the performance of every M-H machine that runs on wheels.

Please contact Erhard Reinhardt and make arrangements. Tea will be served by the Walther League. Further information next week.

EGGS — $1.00 A DOZEN

Eggs will reach a post-war price peak this summer with $1.00 a doz. eggs a real possibility by August.

Though this is a heavy production season, there aren't nearly enough eggs being laid to meet demand. When laying rate declines in mid-summer heat, the squeeze will be greater still.

It all stems from a surplus position last year, resulting in reduced flocks. At present, hen population is running some 15 per cent below last year.

Agricultural SERVICE BOARD NOTES
W.K. Snyder,
Field Supervisor

Herbicides on Flax: In the early days of 2-4-D it was assumed that flax would be susceptible to this herbicide because it is a dicotyledonous plant. The present use of 2-4-D and MCP has been a real boon to farmers and has transformed flax from one of the weediest farm crops to potentially one of the cleanest. Actually flax is less tolerant of 2-4-D than the small grains.

Fortunately, the common weeds of flax are relatively more susceptible to 2-4-D than the crop and MCP is less injurious than 2-4-D. Varietal differences are less important when MCP is used instead of 2-4-D. The salts or amines of 2-4-D likewise are less likely to cause plant injury than the esters. There has been speculation as to whether plants sprayed with 2-4-D through several generations might develop either more or less tolerance for it. At Minnesota, Redwing, Minerva and Redwood was sprayed in 1949, their progenies in 1950 and their second generation in 1951. There has been no apparent change in response of these plants when compared to similar progenies whose ancestors have never been sprayed.

IDEALS . . .
Ideals are meant to be lived. Though they must first be formulated in the mind, they remain like seeds hidden in the ground until they germinate in the heart and bring forth good and useful deeds in the workaday world of men.

The optimum stage of growth of flax for treatment appears to be when flax is about 5 inches tall. Weeds at this stage are relatively small and light dosages of herbicides will in most cases control them satisfactorily.

The Wheat Board reports the sale of 250,000 bushels of barley to Great Britain.

DISTRICT NEWS

M.V.B.C. NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

The "A" Capello Choir has made its first appearance of the season in the Bergen Church. It is always of interest to note the activities which precede any appearance — robes must be pressed (and the young men do their own). The choir is well organized and the students in official capacities do their duty well. Remember, April 17. They will be singing in the Didsbury Church. Watch for further information.

The Choral Society will make three appearances this year. G. Lyle Richardson has again excelled in his interpretation of "The Crucifixion" by Stainer. The first appearance will be in Crossfield, April 2, at 8 p.m. They will appear in Didsbury on Good Friday, April 3, in the United Missionary Church at 8 p.m. and on Monday, April 6 in the Bergthal Church at 8 p.m.

The Youth Convention, under auspices of the United Missionary Youth Fellowship, held its convention in Didsbury on Saturday and Sunday of this past week. A large number of young people were guests at the College. The students playing host for the occasion. We were most happy to have these young people in our midst and we believe that a number of them are planning to attend the College soon. Rev. Willard Swain, pastor in the Bergen Church was chairman of the convention, being also the conference director of the young people's organization. We commend him on his ability and vision.

We would draw to your attention particularly the special notices regarding the two great events of April 7 and 9. Don't miss being present.

Mrs. C. J. Hallman of Edmonton was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Richardson during the time of the Sunday School convention.

President and Mrs. Taylor entertained Rev. and Mrs. Cunningham, pastors of the Alliance Church, Calgary, on Thursday evening after the service.

Those who gave so liberally toward the support of the College during the recent financial drive will be happy to know that $300 has been set aside for kitchen use. We hope that this amount will help toward the fulfilling of the requirements for that needy section of the College. Some good utensils have been bought and we are hoping to build more cupboards as well.

Didsbury is proud of this College we know, and it is the desire of those in administrative positions that it shall be a benefit to the entire community as students year by year pass in and out of its doors. When the buildings are paid for and the grounds landscaped we believe it will be a real asset to this town. We are expecting a real increase in students for another year. This is Didsbury's own College.

EASTER ASSURANCE

Ever since death came into the world by sin, the human heart has asked: "If a man die, shall he live again?"

By His glorious resurrection on that first Easter morn Jesus gave the positive and eternally comforting answer to that question. He proved conclusively the certainty of a physical resurrection from the dead. But more, He came forth from the grave as the Resurrection and the Life. As the mighty conqueror of death and hell. He brought life and immortality to light. And now He gives us the blessed assurance: "He that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die." For the Christian, death is the portal which opens into the eternity of heaven. At the moment of death the soul of the Christian begins the blissful life with Christ in heaven. And on the last day, when all who are in the graves shall hear His voice and shall come forth, the bodies of the believers will be reunited with their souls to be ever with the Lord. This is our Easter assurance. The sacrifice that Christ gave for our sins has been accepted as a sufficient ransom. In the risen Christ we have God's pledge of our forgiveness and the assurance of heaven.

urday, March 21 at 3:30 p.m. when and Mrs. Charles H. Thomas of Olds, became the bride of Willis Clair Fischer, son of Mr. and Mrs.

H. J. Miller officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a floor-length gown of Faconne lace with jacket which had three-quarter length sleeves. She carried a white Bible from which fell white streamers entwined with American Beauty Roses and rosebuds.

Miss Betty M. Johnson of Cremona was the bridesmaid and she was lovely in a floor-length gown of mauve satin with lace inserts, separate Bertha collar was a feature of the gown. Her flowers were a nosegay of mauve and yellow carnations.

Miss Mavis Taylor and Miss Betty
Thomas were junior bridesmaids.
Miss Taylor chose a yellow gown and carried a nosegay of yellow and mauve carnations while Miss Thomas was gowned in green and carried a nosegay of yellow roses in a mauve ribbon.

Raymond Fischer of Didsbury attended the groom. Ushers were the bride's brothers, Bob of Della and Eric of Olds. Mrs. J. Turpie presided at the organ.

Following the wedding a reception was held for about 40 relatives and friends in the United Church parlors. Mrs. C. H. Thomas, the bride's mother, received the guests gowned in a navy dress. Her corsage was American Beauty roses.
The groom's mother chose a gray silk dress and corsage of Tallman roses. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Miller and the groom responded.

dress of nylon taffeta print in aqua on white. Her topcoat was of pink wool and her accessories were white. After a honeymoon in Banff
